

Celebrate ST. GEORGE'S DAY

St. George is the patron saint of England. His emblem, a red cross on a white background, is the flag of England, and part of the British flag. St. George's emblem was adopted by Richard The Lion Heart and brought to England in the 12th century. The king's soldiers wore it on their tunics to avoid confusion in battle.

St. George was a brave Roman soldier who protested against the Romans' torture of Christians and died for his beliefs.

The popularity of St. George in England stems from the time of the early Crusades when it is said that the Normans saw him in a vision and were victorious.

One of the best-known stories about St. George is his fight with a dragon. St. George is known throughout the world as the dragon-slaying patron saint of England.

St. George is patron saint not only of England but also of Aragon, Catalonia, Ethiopia, Georgia, Greece, Lithuania, Palestine, Portugal, and Russia, as well as the cities of Amersfoort, Beirut, Bteghrine, Cáceres, Ferrara, Freiburg, Genoa, Ljubljana, Gozo, Pomorie, Qormi, Lod and Moscow.
